3. Report to Licensing Sub-Committee Following Receipt of a Representation in Relation to an Application Made Under the Licensing Act 2003 for St Martin Of Tours Church in Eynsford - 17/04282/LAPRE.

The Hearing gave consideration to a report by the Chief Officer Environmental and Operational Services giving details of an application under Section 17 of the Licensing Act 2003 for a premises license for St. Martin of Tours Church, Station Road, Eynsford, Kent DA4 0EH. It was noted that objections had been received but not withdrawn and accordingly the application had been referred to the Sub-Committee for determination.

The Hearing heard from the applicants who advised that the church had been through some renovations to make the building more of a community asset to be used by different local organisations and the church itself. It was believed that applying for Temporary Event Notices each time an event was to be held would be more complicated than holding a premises licence. They advised that they expected events to be held at weekends, but consideration had been given to New Year's Eve and if this date was to fall on a weekday. They therefore felt it was necessary to apply for the sale of alcohol at hours up until midnight on each day. The Parochial Church Council (PCC) would have to agree all hire requests.

In response to questions the applicants advised that the events that would take place would be similar to Christmas or Summer fayres and events run by local groups. Wedding receptions and birthday parties would not be allowed; there were local pubs and a Village Hall nearby which could host such events. The applicants envisaged that 18 - 20 events a year would take place, with at least 6 to be held by the Church itself, and wanted the sale of alcohol and raffles to be fully legal. Alcohol would be served from a serving hatch and if there were questions regarding age, ID would be asked to be shown. Apart from the Communion wine, alcohol was not stored in the church, and would only be brought onto the premises for events approximately a day in advance.

In response to further questions from the Members the applicants advised that they would be happy to vary the hours requested so that they would only seek the supply of alcohol on a weekday until midnight on New Year's Eve. Otherwise they would be content to be licensed on weekdays until only 11pm. They would not object to a condition that the PCC Member opening and closing the premises or authorising a sale of alcohol be at least 18 years of age.

In summing up the applicants advised that they were concerned there had been some misunderstandings and the events during a working week would be a small number over a year. The PCC were aware that the church building was primarily for worship and would only allow concerts and other events to be run by responsible adults. They understood there were concerns surrounding timings but this was their understanding of the application form.

At 10.58 a.m. the Hearing Members withdrew to consider the issues raised with the Council's Legal advisor and Democratic Services Officers in attendance.

At 11.49 a.m. the Hearing Members, Council's Legal Advisor and Democratic Services Officers returned to the Council Chamber.

The Chairman informed the Hearing that the Sub-Committee had had regard to the representations made by the Applicant and interested parties and Licensing Act 2003. He advised that the Church was exempt from the licensing of Regulated Entertainment under the Act and was therefore not included on the Notice of Determination. The Sub Committee was satisfied that granting the application subject to conditions were appropriate to address potential undermining of the licensing objectives of prevention of public nuisance and the protection of children from harm.

Resolved: That a Premises License in respect of St. Martin of Tours Church, Station Road, Eynsford, Kent DA4 0EH, subject to mandatory conditions and additional conditions contained in the notice of determination attached as an appendix to these minutes, be granted.
