People & Places Advisory Committee (10 December 2019, Minute 29)

The Community Safety Manager presented the quarter 2 monitoring report which outlined the success measures and actions of the Sevenoaks District Community Safety Strategy & Action Plan 2019-20. She advised that of the success measures, 7 were green and 2 were amber. Of the actions, 44 were green, 4 were amber and 1 was red.

In response to queries, the Community Safety Manager advised that youth work to prevent drug misuse is conducted by Kenward Trust who are funded by the Community Safety Partnership via the Police Crime Commissioner funding who did bespoke detached work via the daily tasking held at the Community Safety Unit (CSU).

On a response to the Mental Health Drop in Service in Swanley, she advised that take up was low at the mental health drop-in, but she was working alongside partners to address this.

The Chairman thanked the Community Safety Manager for the presentation and Members showed their appreciation.

Resolved: That the report be noted.
