Public House.

The previous Premises Licence became lapsed when the Licence Holder passed away. An Interim Authority Notice has been served by myself as the partner of the deceased licence holder; this Interim Authority Notice ceases to have effect on 03/04/2020 but it is unlikely the estate will have been resolved – therefore a new Premises Licence is being sought, requesting the same licensable activities as those on the previous licence.

There are some minor alterations to the proposed Premises Licence, include Films and Indoor Sporting Events (to allow for any potential movies night and sporting championships) and some extension to the hours.

I have also including activities which fall within Live and recorded music, to cover our open mic evenings, which are predominantly for musicians to play.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, please state the number expected to attend.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
