Comments: 3:02 PM on 13 Jan 2022 This is one of the cosiest and most welcoming place in town. I could not praise enough the professionalism of the staff members and the quality of the food. A place where I dine with my wife and children regularly and always made special by the staff and owner. He does go extra mile to make sure we always enjoy our experience with Ephesus. Never been disappointed.

I also run small business in town and considering what we have been through past couple of years with lockdowns, restrictions and covid, I can easily say this place has been our high light since May 2021.

Having chats with the boss on the bar and sipping cocktails certainly one of the most refreshing things in my weekly activities. When he brought to my attention that he was having trouble with licences I was shocked. I could freely say since May 2021 I have been either dining or having cocktails at this place once a week and I have never come across any concerning activity nor behaviour. I do recommend this place to all off my clients and never had any negative comments from any of my friends or family.

Once again I highly recommend this place for fine dining and beautiful cocktails and wines.

Many Regards
